

Directions: Read each question and choose the best answer. Underline where you found the answer. Mark the bubble in front of each correct answer.

1. Why do animals communicate?

- to make people laugh
- for different purposes
- to get on a TV show
- because they are not hungry

3. Which animal's sound warns its enemies?

- the dolphin's
- the rattlesnake's
- the frog's
- the whale's

2. How are the sounds of howler monkeys, whales, and dolphins alike?

- They sound like singing.
- They are heard in water.
- They are soft sounds.
- They can be heard far away.

4. When do wolves often communicate?

- while they are hunting
- while they are swimming
- while they are hopping
- while they are sleeping